

to boldly go
where no garden
has gone before . . .

Gardening in a New Climate

Seedy Saturday * February 19, 2011 * Vienna Ontario

Another
SEEDY
SATURDAY

new venue for 2011: Dancing Creek, 35 Chapel Street, Vienna limited tickets, advance purchase recommended: $10
(buy online: www.theviennacafe.ca)

Day's Events

8:30 am .....Early bird yoga at Dancing Creek. Free for Seedy Saturday participants

9:00 am.....Nature / Bird Walk at Otter River Farms. All welcome

Led by members of the Otter Valley Naturalists Club. Free

10:00 am.....Doors open at Dancing Creek. Tour of Dancing Creek

11:00 am.....Concurrent morning workshops

"Garden Solutions-- Literally!" with Bev Wagar

"Do Natural Materials Affect Climate Change?" with Chris Dancey

12:00 noon.. Lunch (buy at Dancing Creek, bring your own, or visit local eatery)

1:00 pm.....Speaker: Kevin Kavanagh, South Coast Gardens

"Pushing the Zones at South Coast Gardens"

2:00 pm.....Speaker: Prof. Hugh Henry, UWO Biology Dept.

"Climate Warming in Southern Ontario : How will Plants Respond?"

3:00 pm.....Speaker: Kim Delaney, Hawthorn Farm Organic Seeds, Minto

"A Resilient Garden"

* seed swap table
(bring / take)
* seed vendors &
info tables
* Master Gardeners

For more information call Bev Wagar 519-200-9319 or visit www.theviennacafe.ca
Proceeds to Seeds of Diversity Canada